CLOUD DESIGN INSIDERS RESEARCH PROJECTS

CONFIDENTIALITY: Research Projects are confidential – even if the technology you are evaluating is commercially available. The Research Projects and related Materials, are confidential and proprietary to Microsoft and its suppliers. For five years after participation in a Research Project, you may not disclose confidential information to third parties. Your duty to protect confidential information survives this agreement. You may disclose confidential information in response to a judicial or governmental order. You must first give written notice to Microsoft to allow it to seek a protective order or otherwise protect the information. Confidential information does not include information that (i) becomes publicly known through no wrongful act; (ii) you received from a third party who did not breach confidentiality obligations to Microsoft or its suppliers; or (iii) you developed independently.

YOUR PARTICIPATION IS VOLUNTARY: You may not be asked to participate in all Research Projects that Microsoft is conducting at any point in time. If you are invited to participate, your participation is entirely voluntary – you can elect to not participate and you can change your mind at any time and elect to withdraw.

RECORDING: Microsoft may decide to record or video tape your activities during a Research Project. This helps us better understand how you engage with the technology and the responses that you give or the actions you take. You agree to permit this recording and grant us the right to include your name, voice, image, biographical information and data in the recording. You acknowledge that Microsoft owns the recording and consent to Microsoft’s use of this recording for research and other business purposes.

DATA: For some Research Projects we may ask you to bring a sample of data to explore the Microsoft technology. You agree that you have permission to use that data in the Research Project. You agree to mask or otherwise ensure that the data doesn’t include confidential information or personal information of yourself or others – such as credit card numbers, social security numbers, email aliases, etc.

You also give third parties any patent rights in your feedback needed for their products, technologies, and services to use or interface with any specific parts of a Microsoft software or service at no charge. You will not give feedback that is subject to a license or other obligation that requires Microsoft to grant or pass through any rights or make any disclosures or payments to third parties. These rights survive expiration or termination of these terms.

By posting a Submission you warrant and represent that you own or otherwise control all of the rights to your Submission as described in these terms including, without limitation, all the rights necessary for you to provide, post, upload, input, or submit the Submission.
